Following its association with a PubMed record and your approval of the PMC-ready documents, your manuscript will be sent to PMC. If there is an embargo on the submission, the manuscript will not be publicly available until the embargo expires. You will receive an e-mail once your manuscript becomes available in PubMed Central.

Thank You!

Status You have completed the final approval step of the NIHMS process.
Your manuscript will be made available in PMC 12 months after final publication of the article.

Note: If you have final citation information for this manuscript, you may provide it by clicking on the Provide Citation button and submitting the completed citation form.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Step 5
